Dear Vice President SHI Jianzhong,

On behalf of the University of California, Irvine, congratulations to China University of Political Science and Law (CUPL) on its 70th anniversary.

Although we are not able to celebrate together in person, I am honored to have this opportunity to extend our congratulations on this tremendous milestone. We thank you, your students, faculty, administrators, and staff for your hard work in making China University of Political Science and Law one of the most prestigious universities in China. The success of your university is inspirational and a direct result of your dedication to students and partners. We are grateful for our collaboration and look forward to a long and successful partnership between our two universities.

Once again, congratulations on 70 years of incredible accomplishments. We wish you all the best and continued success in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Gary W. Matkin
